

Len and Sheryl Waite – Owners of Talbot Lodge

We grow a large variety of plants from all parts of the world and therefore need a good but varied growing environment. Our location provides part of the requirements but using Organic Xtra provides the “Just Right” nutrients for our plants without fear of burn or over feeding.

We have been using Queensland Organics products for over five years now and find that regular applications provide the best results.

